There are only 8 seats available in the Leg. Cl. for nomination from special interests, minorities or other causes: Of these, 4 seats are guaranteed to Mahomedans, Indian Christians and depressed classes if they fail to secure representation thro' general elections or election from the Assn. The chances are that the communities are not likely to come thro' their elections & so in all probability the above number or not less than half of them will have to be reserved to them. The European Planting Assn may have to be given 1 seat if any of their planters fail to come thro' the Planting Interest Constituency. There will be very few seats left for special or minority interests. Hence it may not be possible to guarantee a seat for the community in the Leg. Cl. even though they may fail to come thro' the general elections. All that could be done seems to be to recognise the Assn as one representing minority community even for the Leg. Cl.

This should be so even for the R.A. Reply sent to them is practically to this effect. [illegible] 26/1

18th February 1924.

Sir,

With reference to your letter D.O. No.1905 dated the 12th instant, I beg to inform you that our above Association has been granted the right of returning a member to the Assembly as representing the minor Jaina Community, without any conditions, as you will see from a copy of the Government Order No.1504 dated 21/1/24, herewith enclosed for your ready reference. Further, in the list of Associations recognised for representation purposes, which has been sent to us with Notification No.1960-82 dated the 16th inst., the Jaina Education Fund Association is mentioned as being unconditionally recognised, unlike the Ayodhyanagarada Sivachar Sangha, for instance, whose claims are said to be considered after the general elections. Having thus no doubt whatever of our having been granted the privilege of returning, we arranged for the election meeting to be held on the 26th instant and addressed you in the matter of the Polling Officer. We have however stopped proceeding further on account of your above communication and I request that you
